

Gracias a mis padres pues por ellos (o por su culpa) me convertí en lo que soy. Sin ustedes nada hubiera sido posible.

A mis hermanos por compartir la vida.

Al güero por ser un ejemplo a seguir.

A Andrea por ser mi Sen-Sei.

A Monica por su comprensión, cariño y paciencia.

A todos mis familiares y amigos por ser parte de mi vida y de mi trabajo.

Few years ago I thought in a rational way that life was hollow, pointless, meaningless; that it had no purpose. Now I think that there is so much more than thoughts, reason and knowledge; there is feeling, love and wisdom. The deep purpose of life is to be happy and to make happy those who surround you, to make feel meaningful and important those you care for. And after life your spirit remains inside those you loved, those you gave meaning to.

This work is especially dedicated to the memory of Mr. James Patrick Devane.
