To my mother, María Hortencia Barajas Escamilla, who supported me all the time and who encouraged me to keep doing things right, for being there always, and for teaching me how to handle hard things in life.

To my father, Gilberto Oscar Albores Cruz, who taught me most of the important things in life and for supporting every decision taken.

To my aunt Rafa Escamilla, for being a second mother for me and supporting me all the time.

To my brothers Pavel and Yuri for being there for me and for helping me every time I needed, and for showing me the most valuable things in life.

To every good friend I have met until now: Xochitl, Wendy, Dany, Angelica, Oswaldo, Ricardo, Manuel, Johan, José Luis, Gilberto, Alejandro, Nadia, Beatriz, Rosy, Cristi, Victor, Tello, Saulo, Gama, Lety and all those who have always been there for me and who I can not remember now, but who will remain in the hearth.

To all the people who died while trying: Horacio Albores, Refugio Barajas, Irene Cruz, Leticia Escobar, Luis Huidobro.

To God.