Hi Nilda,
For the images that appear in the journal article, I think that the conference publisher (IEEE) actually holds the copyright, not me. To be honest though, I don't think this is a big deal to just be included in your thesis since you're not financially benefiting from it.

Dear Dr. John Stasko,

I'm writing this mail to you to ask for an autorization about using several images of your work published in "Focus+Context Display and Navigation Techniques for Enhancing Radial, Space-Filling Hierarchy Visualizations".

The images will be used in my thesis document with title "SunGroups: Visualización para grandes colecciones de tesis digitales y documentos científicos" at the Universidad de las Americas Puebla, Mexico where i am studying my master degree.

The images that i want to use are labeled as Figure 1, 3, 4, and 5 . I will be referencing your work on the text and on the bibliography.

Thank you for your kindness and consideration

Hi Nilda

Thanks for writing. I'm totally fine with it. Please go ahead to include the figures in your thesis.

But have you check with the publisher of the conference proceedings - ACM? I think they also own the copyright. If they do not allow it, I can generate slightly different figures for you.

Best,

Jian
