Appendix F

Information Sheet given to subjects before interviews

Instructions to coders:

part one

- 1 read the sheet called "Información Para los Temas Previo a las Entrevistas"
- 2 read the sheet called "Cuestionario"
- 3 you will be given a listening exercise worksheet
- 4 you will listen to the accompanying cassette three times
- 5 complete the listening exercise worksheet and give to me
- 6 one by one you will be interviewed by Dana and your answers will be recorded onto a cassette
- 7 please do not talk throughout the listening exercise and do not discuss any of the read or listened to material until the exercise and interviews are completed

part two

- you will be asked to code the interview responses for the people in our own group first
- 2 if any discrepancies are encountered in your coding, we will repeat the coding of each interview until we can agree on a system
- 3 next you will be asked to code the interview responses of the interviews of the students
- 4 any discrepancies encountered in the coding of the students' interviews, the coding will be repeated until all can agree
- 5 you will be coding approximately 65 interviews given by students
- 6 please include any additional comments made by the students as we go, so that we can discuss them and try to classify them when we finish
- Thanks very much for your help today. I really appreciate it! Dana
